

Big benefits for Small and Mid-sized Enterprises

IHG® Business Edge empowers you to maximise your time by focusing less on searching for the best rates and more on making decisions that take your business to the next level – whatever that means to you.

Built on guidance from SME travel managers and travellers, your new program streamlines the negotiation process, rewards loyalty and consolidates data, content and booking into one easily accessible place.

Discover how IHG® Business Edge helps you take your business to the next level:

A portal just for you

Whether you're compiling a report on your company's activity with IHG® or you need resources as your role grows beyond travel, IHG Business Edge provides the insights and data that you need, all in one place.

No more negotiations

Rather than spending two months or more on the typical hotel RFP process, take just two minutes to register for IHG Business Edge to access a competitive discount at all participating IHG hotels globally.

Loyalty that works for you

From road warriors to the infrequent traveller, your company's employees will enjoy all the benefits of IHG® Rewards Club Gold Elite status after their first IHG Business Edge stay.
